Biographical Note:

Greg Cox was born in 1948 and raised in South Bay. He married Cheryl Willett in 1975. They have two daughters. He earned bachelor’s and master's degrees from San Diego State University and started his career teaching at Montgomery Junior High School in the early 1970s. He served on the Chula Vista City Council from 1976-1981. He served as Chula Vista Mayor from 1981-1990. He worked as a government consultant until being appointed to fill a vacancy on the San Diego County Board of Supervisors in 1995, where he served until Dec 2020. While on the Board of Supervisors, he served as Vice Chair in 2019 and as Chair in 2020. Cox’s wife, Cheryl, served as Chula Vista Mayor from 2004-2016.

Cox also held leadership roles in government associations and as a member of several boards. He served as President of the League of California Cities from 1987-1988, President of California State Association of Counties (CSAC) in 2005, and President of National Association of Counties (NACo) in 2018.

Cox’s notable accomplishments include helping to found the Living Coast Discovery Center in Chula Vista and improving the lives of foster youth in San Diego County including the founding of San Pasqual Academy. He worked on building recreational opportunities in the county, including several parks and the Bayshore Bikeway. Cox was instrumental in the creation of San Diego's 211 hotline, which helps direct residents to health and human service programs, and was a leading advocate for finding a solution to the sewage problem in the Tijuana River Valley.

Scope and Contents:

Contains items collected through Greg Cox's public service, especially as Mayor of Chula Vista from 1981-1990, and on the San Diego County Board of Supervisors, 1990-2020. Includes photographs, posters, awards, audio-visual media, cartoons, plaques, certificates, papers, proclamations, objects and other materials related to Cox's work in local government. Many items were given to Cox to honor him during his time in public service by government associations, nonprofit organizations, and other groups. Notable items include local news clips featuring Cox and county projects, four original political cartoons from artist Joe Schmidt, and a State of the County message from January 1998.

Provenance: The museum took possession of the collection in 2020 and it was stored both onsite and offsite. Deed of gift signed in 2025. Accrual of Curriculum Vitae in 2023. Processed and finding aid created in 2025. Accession number: 2025.01

Existence and location of copies: Photographs of most items available electronically by contacting the repository, will be available online through Collective Access.
